TRUMAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Oktoberfest 2009 Next Friday, October 2

Get ready for an exciting Truman tradition that's coming back this year. To help kick off the fall, you should come out to OktoberFest 2009. The event starts at 4:00 PM out on the Mall between McClain Hall and the Student Union.

There will be all sorts of fun events like tricycle races, dancing, and performances by the Sweet Nothings and the True Men. Wow, what a night!

Of course, no OktoberFest would be complete without good food and drink. There will be all kinds of food and a bunch of root beer kegs for you to enjoy.

This event was a huge success last year and a ton of fun. You should come out to enjoy the fun. Admission to the event is only $1. For that you'll get to play all the games, eat all the food, drink tons of root beer, and take home your own collectable stein. For more information, see the OktoberFest event on Facebook.

Multicultural Affairs, Student Success Center Offer Tutoring

Let's face it: Truman is a tough school. We all need help with classes. If you are looking for tutoring, the Multicultural Affairs Center would like to help. They offer tutoring Sunday-Thursday, 6-9 in Calculus I & II, Chemistry 100, 120 & 121, Biology 100, 107 & 108, Accounting, Computer Science, and many more. The MAC is in the Adair House across from Violette Hall.

The Student Success Center in the Kirk Building is also here to set you up with skilled tutors, study skills lessons, and academic peer mentors. Drop by Kirk Building 112!

New Free Samples Available Today - 3M Command Adhesives

We got some more free samples in today. Today's samples are from the 3M company and feature the Command Adhesive Strips. These are great for hanging things on the old plaster walls in your room as they are less likely (if used properly) to damage the walls.

The free samples, like all the free samples we get, will be in the 1 North lobby by the ping pong table. Please only take one.

Kohlenberg Lyceum Series Opens with Kansas City Symphony

Have you heard about the Lyceum Series yet? This is a Truman tradition that dates back over 110 years! Each year the Lyceum Committee (which Zac is on) selects five or six shows to come to campus that are considered fine arts and entertainment. These are world class performances that come from all over the world.

This year's series includes a talk with Jean-Michel Cousteau (son of Jacques Cousteau), Yuletide Pranks with The Blanks (Ted's band from the TV show Scrubs), Ailey II Dancers, and The 5 Browns (five brothers and sisters that play five grand pianos on stage).

The first show of the season is the Kansas City Symphony. They'll perform some classical as well as pops pieces. The show is Tuesday, September 29, at 7:30 PM in the Baldwin Auditorium. You can pick up your FREE TICKET now at the SAB Office in the SUB.

For more information about the Symphony performance or the entire Lyceum Series, join our Facebook group. Just search for Kohlenberg Lyceum Series on Facebook.

Missouri Hall Quick Notes

- The Missouri Hall Senate elected its new officers last week. These include Treasurer Paul Davis, Secretary Devin Heier, Vice President Tyler Arachtingi, and President Faith Martin. Senate meetings are Wednesday nights at 8:30 in the Chariton Room.
- The MO Hall Office is still collecting green and yellow data cards. Bring them by Zac's office in MH 1106.
- They are no longer collecting Housing Condition Reports as the announced deadline has long past. If you did not submit your HCR, you will be held responsible for any damages to your room found out checkout, even those that may have already been there.

Hall Tours Happening Saturday

We will be hosting nearly 500 perspective students, parents, and family this weekend for one of Truman's five annual large visit events. Perspective students will be touring campus and learning all about Truman.

Tours of Missouri Hall will be offered 1:30-3:00 this Saturday. The tours will include the bathrooms. Please make sure you're not in the bathrooms during these periods so you're not running into some kid's mom while you're wearing only your towel. Awkward!

Still want to help give tours? Drop by either one of our MO Hall Tour Crew training meetings. They are this Wednesday and Thursday night at 7:00 in the Chariton Room.
